

The team's leading rebounder with 9.3 points per game and second leading scorer Rhonda Robinson contributed what is to be her best year to the team all season long.

All-conference player Michelle Minton, who was the Bulldogs' highest scorer, with an average of 13.3 points per game, escorts Goose Creek players to the board with teammate Terri Siders, who is anticipating the rebound.

With fourth-year player Rhonda Robinson down low, Terri Siders controls the ball down the lane with Angie Elliott looking to help.

"Mistakes this year were few; drilling plays and running more during practice were harder, but this was a fun year." —Senior Lora Kinard

"The team this year contributed more and committed more than just a hard day's practice, but we worked and solved problems as a team and that proved to be rewarding." —Senior Rhonda Robinson

With a Berkeley defender pressuring from the outside, sophomore player Fredreka Ford calmly controls the movement of the Bulldog's offense.
