

Variety Is The Spice Of Life

As theater goers said, "There is a 'Variety' for everyone." That was just what the people of Walterboro said when they went to see the annual production of Variety at Hampton Street Auditorium the week of March 1st through March 6th. The show consisted of four musical segments. The Rock and Roll from the 50's, a lip sync segment, a gospel music segment, and selections from three Broadway musicals including Annie Get Your Gun and My Fair Lady were included in the show.

Director Ed Robbins commented that 60 percent of the cast was seventh grade and younger. An outstanding member of the cast was Nathaniel Green, a member of the Walterboro High performing chorus, who sang "Blueberry Hill" and "Sweet Little Sixteen." Other members from Walterboro High among the dancers were Katrina Avant, Amy Wright, Kim Dandrige, Kim Murdaugh, Karen Butterworth, Yalanda Pinckney, Tanya Snow, Ginger Hansborough, and Billy Jones.

The production would not have gone as smoothly without the help of the young ladies who wore cute costumes and seated all the spectators with a smile. It took a lot of patience to wear a decorated hat and maintain a smile for over an hour and a half. The winners from the hat contest were Becky Smoak, first place; Michelle Edwards, second place; Jody Pilch, third place.
