

What Do You Think?

Q: What was the best Valentine's Day present you saw anyone receive?

“Once I saw a girl with a teddybear holding a dozen roses in its hands.”
said freshman Paulita Lloyd.

“I knew a girl who received two dozen roses in a variety of red, yellow, and pink.”
said junior April Donaldson.

Students eat lunch in the Commons Area as various Valentine's Day gifts are displayed behind them. The Commons Area is filled with gifts every Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Bodison questions a student as to whether or not the flowers in her hand belonged to them. For several years, Mrs. Bodison has contributed her time to distribute the flowers.
