

Sophomore Richard Sheffield shows his spirit on Hats and Shades day of Spirit Week. The Sophomore Class sponsored Spirit Week.

The varsity Bulldogs bust through the run-through poster made by the varsity cheerleaders for the Homecoming game. The Bulldogs beat the Burke Bulldogs 34-6 in a real dog fight.

New

In many ways ours was a new generation. Bill Clinton was the first Democratic president elected in 12 years or since most seniors were in kindergarten. Bulldog sports were finally being taken seriously thanks to the varsity football team making the state playoffs for four consecutive years. The Band of Blue also won the state championship each of those same years. The Class of 1993 had found success each year of its high school career.

— Bramlett Easterlin

