

And Off They Go!

This year students participated in field trips that took them anywhere from downtown Charleston to Walt Disney World in Florida.

Mr. Drake's French III class took a trip to downtown Charleston to explore the French influence. The class visited the French Huguenot Church and the Gaulois & Mariclet, a small French restaurant on Broad Street.

Mrs. Pawlak's and Mrs. Allgood's history classes took a trip to the Charleston museum. While there, the group saw an exhibit on the Holocaust. It explained in detail the full horrors that Jews experienced during World War II.

A group of seniors traveled down to Florida this year. The group toured Disney World, the MGM studios Theme Park, and Epcot.

"I enjoyed the trip," said senior Dequanda Sanders. "I got to interview the P.M. Dawn, and a group of us will be on the Disney Channel on June 11. I think that the seniors will enjoy this next year; however, next year we should get a bus driver who knows he territory. We never made it to Daytona Beach. We got lost."

— Marc Stroble

"I went to Cisco's, a restaurant with Mrs. Courtney's class. It was fun and different. It was definitely a change. The food was delicious, and I loved shopping at the mall."

— Sharon Hazel
Sophomore

Seniors Tiffany Chisolm, Tonique Rabb, Yolanda Richardson, Dequanda Sanders, Erika Holmes, and Hazel Brelan clown around in front of the hotel swimming pool. This year the seniors traveled down to Florida to Disney World.

