

people

Although the actual building was made of bricks, the school was made up of people. Students, teachers, administrators, janitors, office workers, and lunchroom helpers — each was different.

Juniors Karen Beach and Jenny Robbins were both accepted to South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts. Karen for creative writing and Jenny for voice. Jenny was also the only chorus member to make All-State.

Senior football player Terrell Nesmith was selected to play in the Shrine Bowl. His teammate Kenyatta Spruill was chosen to play in the North-South All Star game. Terrell signed with Wofford, while Kenyatta chose the Citadel.

Senior Sean O'Briant was District 1 Chairperson of student council. Another senior, Dequanda Sanders served as vice-chair. The District 1 Rally was held here because of this. Channel 5's Warren Peper was the key-note speaker.

Who could forget Angie Drawdy, a popular cheerleader, chorus member and journalism staffer, who died of a severe asthma attack on February 6? Many different organizations gave memorials to Angie.

People — each one contributed to the school in his own way.

— Bramlett Easterlin

Teacher Cadet Jamie Kaye helps out the Spirit Club before the Ruffin football game by blowing up balloons. The Teacher Cadets helped sell items during all four lunches because their teacher, Mrs. Sharon Courtney, was also Spirit Club advisor.

Video Technology advisor Julia Waddell fixes senior Jesse Burns up for a skit. Producing original "mini movies" was one of the many things the video technology class did.

Cokeitha James stops to smile in a crowded hall.

Senior Scot Williams was dressed his best for Cotillion.