

Being All They Can Be

Because of their agility and skill, Cokeitha James and Terrill Nesmith were chosen "Most Athletic" by their classmates.

Cokeitha, a varsity cheerleader for three years, earned a varsity letter each year. She also won many awards in gymnastics. Her agility and gymnastic ability was displayed during pep rallies and on the field when she demonstrated flips, cartwheels, and various other agile moves. Cokeitha was also the President of Dogs Against Drugs in 1992. Cokeitha ran track one year.

Her counterpart, Terrill, was a key player on the football field since his freshman year. He lettered in varsity football three years and was a two-year starter. Terrill won a leadership award in 1989. As a senior, Terrill received the following awards: A.J. Novit Leadership, All-Region Defensive Back and Running Back, All-Lowcountry Defensive Back of the Year. He played in the Shrine Bowl and on the All-State and the All-Lowcountry teams. Terrill was a "Top 100" football prospect in the state.

Terrill excelled in track as well as football. He was voted All-Region Triple Jumper for two consecutive years. He was awarded Lower State Champion and State Runner-Up in 1992.

"It is a great honor to be voted "Most Athletic," said Terrill.

— Marshall Taylor

Terrill Nesmith and Cokeitha James were voted "Most Athletic" by the Class of 1993. Terrill played football and ran track while Cokeitha was a cheerleader.

Terrill Nesmith signs to play football with Wofford College. Looking on are his father, Gilbert Nesmith, and Coach Leroy Riley.

