

Get Up and Go

The Senior Class covered all aspects of spirit in their selection of "Most Spirited." They chose a person who showed community spirit, a person who showed school spirit, and a person who showed team spirit.

Hugh Wilson has participated in many community activities. He was a Special Olympic Volunteer for four years and volunteered as a tutor in the Adopt-A-Bullpup program. He was also an Eagle Scout.

Karyn Davis was involved in numerous school activities. She was involved in cheerleading throughout high school. She served as assistant captain her freshman year and co-captain her sophomore year. She worked on the Journalism Staff her junior and senior years. This year, she was Student Life editor.

Kenyatta Spruill has been involved with sports throughout high school. He was named to the All-Lowcountry, All-Conference, and All-State football teams. He was also named to the North-South All-Star Team and as Top 100 Player of the year. He also played basketball and was named to the All-Region Track Team.

"When the student body supports activities, the athlete tend to perform on a higher level," said Kenyatta.

— Rhonda Carter

Karyn Davis and Kenyatta Spruill were voted "Most Spirited" by the senior class. Karyn was a varsity cheerleader and Kenyatta received many varsity football honors.

Hugh Wilson laughs at a joke Mrs. Janis Blocker told during lunch. Hugh was an Eagle Scout.

