

Another Madame Curie

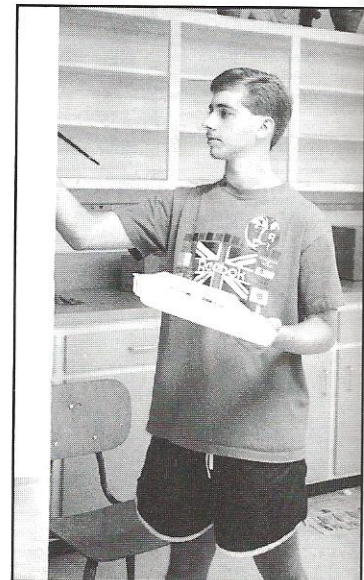

AP Biology student Paulita Lloyd performs an experiment on digestion while fellow group member Erika Pitts watches. Being sure to wear gloves and goggles, they always took great precaution while doing their labs.

Procrastination Senior Jenny Sarvis does some last-minute studying for one of Mrs. Bird's American Government tests. American Government was a graduation requirement usually taken during the hectic senior year.

Open wide! While eating at a French restaurant in Charleston during a field trip, senior Farrior Langley indulges in a pot of fondue as fellow Frenchman Robin Shoupe watches in amazement. This was the third year of French for both girls.

Picasso? Senior Michael Dandridge makes his last mark when painting a mural on Mrs. Zielke's classroom wall. This was Michael's fourth year in art.
