

Strike up the band . . . Marching proudly down Jefferies Boulevard during the Christmas parade, Juniors Jamone Blake, Katrina Aiken, Erin Davis, and Tahnee Johnson carry the banner. The Band of Blue was invited to march in parades throughout the state.

The Three Musicians . . . Sophomore Margaret Young and Seniors Jenny Williams and April Arrington play flutes in the gym at a pep rally. Playing the flute helped Jenny earn the senior superlative of "Most Talented."

It's a Goofy Minnie! Junior Heather Garrett "goofs" around on the band trip to Disney World in Florida. Heather played flute in the band and worked at Burger King.

Hear the bells ring . . . Junior Tahnee Johnson and freshman Erin Davis perform on the cymbals and bells during halftime at a football game. Not only did the two musicians work well together in band but also on the tennis courts.
