

What A Night

Ieshia Hugie will never forget the night she won Miss Sophomore.

Homecoming was a night of prayers and tears. For Ieshia Hugie it was an unforgettable moment when she was crowned Miss Sophomore. Ieshia, along with two other sophomores girls competed for the honor. Ieshia and Sarah Rodriguez were announced as finalists two days before the game. The crowning ceremony took place during the halftime activities at the game.

"I did not get my hopes up, I was just glad I made the top two," said Ieshia. "I am so happy, I have prayed for this moment all week long."

Although drenching rain soaked the field, it did not spoil the contestants' night.

Ieshia's escort, Andrew Perry and Ieshia's mother Ms. Verdie Hugie were thrilled with Ieshia's accomplishment.

— Robin Bullock

I'm so Excited. Ieshia Hugie reveals a big smile when she is named Miss Sophomore. Ieshia is an active member in her church youth group, while she also participates in many school activities.

Say Cheese. Cheerful Sarah Rodriguez shows her excitement for being named one of the finalists for Miss Sophomore. She was one of many sophomores on the j.v. cheerleading squad.

