

Through Thick and Thin

Friends to the very end

What's the craziest thing you've ever done with a friend?

"I would have to say bungee jumping was the craziest thing we've ever done."

— Chris McGrew

"My friends Anthony Brown, Willona Kinsey, and my brother Eron Johnson and I went to Piggly Wiggly and filled up shopping carts and left them in the aisle."

— Patrice Lee

Through thick and thin, good times and bad, a good friend was always someone special to have. Most everyone had a crowd of friends. People had certain qualities they looked for in friends. Of course, students chose to hang around people with whom they had more in common.

"I look for trust and honesty in a friendship," said senior Frederick Jenkins. "I have found these qualities in my best friend Phillip Green."

Friends were definitely a necessity for the rough teenage crises. Having someone to listen to problems, to talk to after a bad day, or to share hardships was something every student needed.

"My friends are always there for me when I have a problem and really need to cry or just talk," remarked sophomore Alice Bickley.

Whether it was a joke, great news, or a special night, sharing it with a friend was great. In a great friendship there was "Nothing To Hide."

Two of a Kind. Hanging out in gym class sophomores Margret Simpson and Evie Shider share a friendly laugh. All friends enjoyed having a class together.

Always there To Help. Best friends Vicki Cunningham and Mara Davis help at the Bike Rodeo for NHS. Vicki and Mara were both members of WHS Singers.

A Great Experience. Juniors Rebecca Corbett, Erin Davis, and Jenna Crouch enjoy a field trip to Medieval Times for Mrs. Blocker's English IV classes. All three girls were in NHS and FCA.
