

Unforgettable

To Lisa Rutledge and Kim Hicks, homecoming was a memorable event. Excitement built as the time drew near to see who would be crowned Homecoming Queen. When the ballots were counted, senior Lisa Rutledge was named the winner. During halftime at the game, the hushed crowd of more than 5,000 anxiously waited the announcement of the winners.

"I was happy and also shocked when I heard my name being called as the new Homecoming Queen!" exclaimed Lisa.

Kim Hicks, who received the second most votes, won the title of Miss Senior.

"I was very happy, but I never expected that I would become Miss Senior. I was really surprised," replied Kim.

— Laurel Barnes

Daddy's Girl. Kim Hicks, miss Senior, is escorted through the NJROTC Honor Guard's arch. Kim was runner-up to Miss Junior in '95.

Do you feel that there should be a Homecoming King?

All smiles. Newly crowned homecoming queen Lisa Rutledge is congratulated by her escort Lance Williams and class sponsor Vinnie Mitchell. Lisa was also a member of Dogs Against Drugs.

"There should be a Homecoming King so the Queen won't be lonely!"

— Kendra Bodison

"Yes, I feel that a guy should have the same opportunity that the girls have."

— Lesa Murphy

