

TALK BACK

Gimme a break! Sophomore quarterback Adam Demers runs off the field after helping the offense attempt to score. Adam played both offense and defense for the Dogs.

Makin' some plays! Freshmen Kentrell Fields and Billy Joe Hill Jr. along with other defensive players try to keep the Stratford Knights from scoring.

“These young men were very fun to work with because they all had one goal — to do their best!”

— Coach Ritter.

“I feel that the team worked well as a team this year, and I think that the coaches did a good job of contributing to our performance every Thursday night.”

— Daerol Ancrum.

LET'S GO DOGS

The title “junior” varsity meant nothing to the J.V. football players, who took the field every Thursday Night proving they had nothing to hide.

The junior varsity football team had a great season this year.

The Dogs beat some very talented teams such as: Orangeburg, Berkeley, Beaufort, Fort Dorchester, Goose Creek, and North Charleston.

They never failed to deliver non-stop action to their fans.

“I was very proud of this team,” said sophomore wide-receiver/defensive back Dante Roberts. We gave the most combined effort of a team that I have seen,” he added.

With the losses to Summerville, Stratford, and Wando as the only bad points of the season, the Dogs had no reason to be ashamed.

“The team did an excellent job this year,” said freshman quarterback Davey White. “We executed well on both sides of the ball,” he added. The team had unity, winning, and character which were the qualities it took to complete a successful football season.
