

The more you know. Scanning furiously for the answers, junior Amanda Wertz takes an Open-book Literature test. Many of her classmates did not read the story until they began taking their test.

Solitary confinement. Junior Shakka Southall takes some time to herself to study during lunch for a major science test. Although she sat alone, many of her classmates shared her fate, eating as quickly as possible to get in those few precious minutes of studying.

To be or not to be? Senior Michael Berry types his essay for AP English during second period. Lucky for him, it wasn't due to Mrs. Janis Blocker until the very end of fourth period.

Myth

Students always moved slowly or lingered in the hallways.

Fact

After the 3:07 bell each afternoon, students practically ran to the parking lot.

Myth

If a student fights another student off-campus, they cannot be punished by the administration.

Fact

Any fight which begins at school between any two students is punishable by the administration, even though the actual fight occurs off-campus.

Myth

The staff was responsible for all school repairs.

Fact

Senior Daron Zelmer assisted Mr. Benny Dietz in fixing computers. Seniors Travis DeWitt and Jeremy Goattee installed wire-holding boxes for Mrs. Denise Edwards.

Myth

Males entering the females' restroom are punished to the same extent as females entering the males' restroom.

Fact

Males are usually punished more heavily for this offense than females.