

Shoes, shoes, and more shoes! Modelling her platform boots, senior Melanie Miller shows off this trend by matching her boots with an equally stylish outfit. "These shoes made my outfit, but they were really hard to walk in," Melanie said.

Should have been a cowboy. Not everyone wears dressy sandals or tennis shoes. Junior Daniel Breland wore his favorite pair of hunting boots. "They make just as big of a statement as the other shoes people wear," said Daniel.

Towering over everyone. "My shoes make me about six inches taller than I actually am. I like to feel like I am towering over people," said senior Amanda Carroll. A lot of girls could have been seen wearing similar shoes.

Don't trip! Walking up the stairs, senior Angie Reeves wears a new pair of New Balances. This brand of shoes lingered as a big trend this year. The administrators wanted students to wear tennis shoes to keep them safe while going up and down the stairs.

A perfect pair. Seniors Eric Castles and Joy Ackerman sport two very different types of shoes. Though they are a couple, Eric prefers tennis shoes, while Joy likes to wear sandals. Both shoes were very stylish.
