

"I had so much fun during Spirit Week this year. I dressed up almost everyday. I love walking down the halls and seeing the expressions on people's faces."
Arnold Williams, 12th

"This is really the first year I dressed up for Spirit Week. My favorite day was Tacky day. It took hours for me to pick out the perfect outfit."
Brandi Benton, 10th

"I think I looked pretty funny on Tacky day. Everyone laughed at me when I came into the school. I wish I could wear my sombrero everyday."
Jamaal Green, 11th

"I loved the reactions I got from students when they saw me. Few teachers dress up, so it shocks them. I chose to be Tigger because he is always happy, just like me."
Ms. Edwards

"I think my costume was pretty extreme. My girlfriend laughed at me for awhile! I don't think I'm going to be wearing huge underwear for a long time."
Tyler Musgrave, 9th

Thriller! Posing as his favorite singer, junior Lionel Yates wears his costume consisting of black leather and white socks. "I think I looked a lot like him. Mainly because I painted my face. The leather and the hair also helped," Lionel said.

Stampede! Choosing to be a quadruplets instead of twins, seniors Amanda Jones and Crystal Flynn and juniors Ginny Hadwin and Jessica Curry sport the zebra print. "We wanted to be different, so we matched four people instead of two," Amanda said.
