

"I really look up to Shaquille O'Neil. He has overcome adversity and is a great basketball player. He plays on my favorite team The Lakers. I wish I could play like him!"

-Paul Pollock, 12th

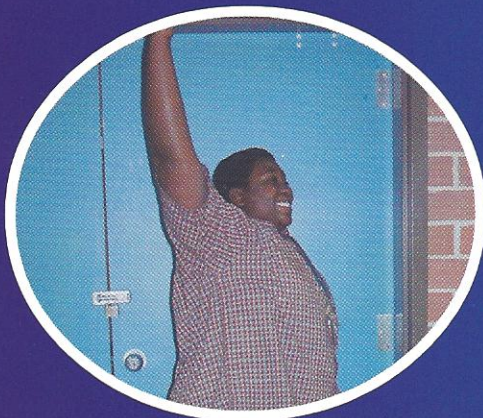

"I admire police officers because they are always doing great things for the community. It takes a lot of patience to do that job."

-Herbert Varner, 10th

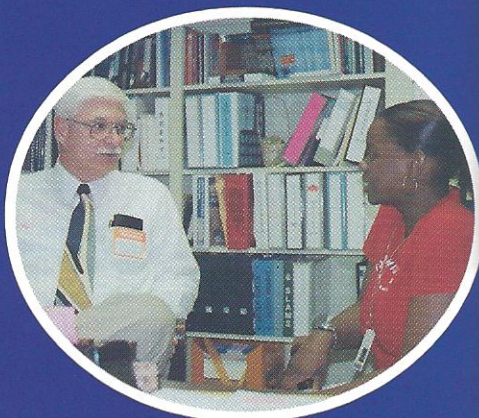

"My role model is Mrs. Broughton because she is a friendly and well-respected woman. I can talk to her about anything. She's just a really good friend."

-Stanquanner Wiggins, 10th

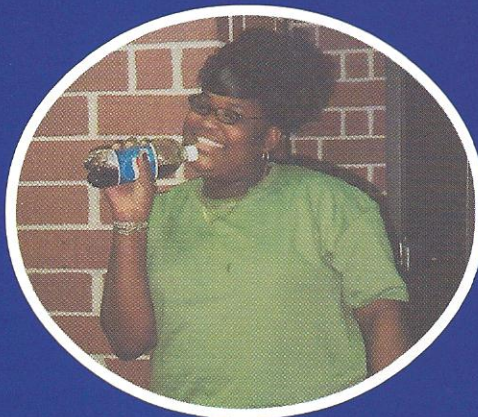

"My idol is Brandy. She always follows her dreams, and does what she believes is right. She is such an inspiration to all girls, and her music has a positive message."

Sherree Brown, 10th

"My role model is Michael Jordan. He is my favorite basketball player because he is tall and he has a good-looking wife! I really just want to meet his wife!"

Moe Wittington, 11th

"My role model is Mr. Pence. I want to be in charge of everything just like he is! I think it would be fun to be such an important and respected figure in our school system."
