

"The President is my idol because he has great responsibilities and many pressures, but it also comes with many benefits. His job is worth it because the benefits out-weigh the sacrifices."

Lauren Brown, 12th

"Nelly has been my idol since the beginning of his rapping career. I like Nelly the most out of any other rapper because he is never uptight; he is always chillin'. He is really talented and has a lot going for him. Plus, he's hot."

Farrah Fiken, 12th

why is this person your idol?

"Faliyah has been my idol for the past five years because she is a good singer, and she is a positive role model. I was devastated when she died this year."

Courtney Vincent, 11th

"I've been listening to Bob Marley's music for almost three years now. He is just a really cool guy. He is always so relaxed and calm. I would love to be able to act like that all the time."

Lisa Strickland, 12th