

"I worry most about the way my truck looks. I have a 2000 Ford F-150. It is white with tan trim, and I put most of the money that I earn into my truck so that I can look good when I cruise through town."

Zach Blecker, 11th

"My biggest worry is how well I do my school work. I want to get good grades and be at the top of my class. I hope I do well because my education decides my future. I want to live with all the finer things in life, plus I have expensive tastes."

Alex Hunt, 11th

"I worry about war more than anything else. It is a very serious issue that involves many of my family and friends. It also may involve me within the next few years because I am about to turn eighteen."

DJ McCollum, 12th

"Paying bills is my biggest worry because if I don't pay certain bills, I may lose things like my house, water, and lights. In order to pay my bills, I must make some money. That means I have to come to work every day and do my job diligently."

Mr. Locklair

"I try not to stress myself out about anything. Sometimes when I think about the future, I get nervous, so I just try not to think about it. I just hope I do well enough in school to be someone important one day."

Jennifer Kauffield, 10th
