

Ready for change. The amount of students in classes are changing, but not by that many. "A couple extra students isn't that bad," sophomore Tommy Reeves said.

A friendly chat. Ruffin combining allows students to have classes with old friends. "A lot of my friends go to Ruffin, so I'm pretty excited," junior Jeff Gatewood said.

Right or wrong? No doubt about it, next year will be different. "I'm kind of looking forward to the change. I think it will be good for everyone," sophomore Cybil Hiers said.

Real men wear blue and white! This year is the last spirit week Walterboro High would have. "I'm glad I got to be a part of the last one," freshman Sean Smoak said.

The daily grind. Seniors still get to include their input on the changes for next year. "I'm glad I got to vote on the new school name, the colors, and the new mascot," senior Angela Spell said.
