

Correcting mistakes. After making a key play against West Ashley, defensive coordinator, Rome Prince shares a few words with his defensive line. The Bulldog's strong defense led them to many deserved victories.

"This year was my favorite because it was the last year for me to play with my teammates. We worked together and got along so well. I'm going to miss everybody."
Marcus Pinckney, 12th

"My favorite part of the game is hitting people because I get such a rush. Games are fun because we usually have no idea who is going to win until the last minute."
Laimart Green, 11th

"I loved playing for Walterboro this year. Everyone gave me a chance first off and accepted me. I had a great time, and I can't wait until next year."
Charlie Brown, 10th
