

Rising above. In a game against Summerville, sophomore Herbert Varner flies through the air with aspirations of making a slam dunk. He outran everyone else to make the extra points the team needed. "When I'm playing, I feel like nobody can stop me," Herbert said.

"The best thing about playing is that it gives me time in the spotlight. I get attention that I do not usually get."

Cayce Crews, 10th

"When I am on the court, my goal is domination. I am determined, and I like to be in control of the game."

Laron Bennett, 10th

"The thing about this year's basketball team, is the way we all came together. We respected each other, and there were not any rivalries."

Deonte Dicks, 9th
