"I am thrilled to be a senior because I am on the verge of embarking on an advanced educational path. Though I'm afraid to move out, I feel like I'm really ready to grow up and live my life on my own."

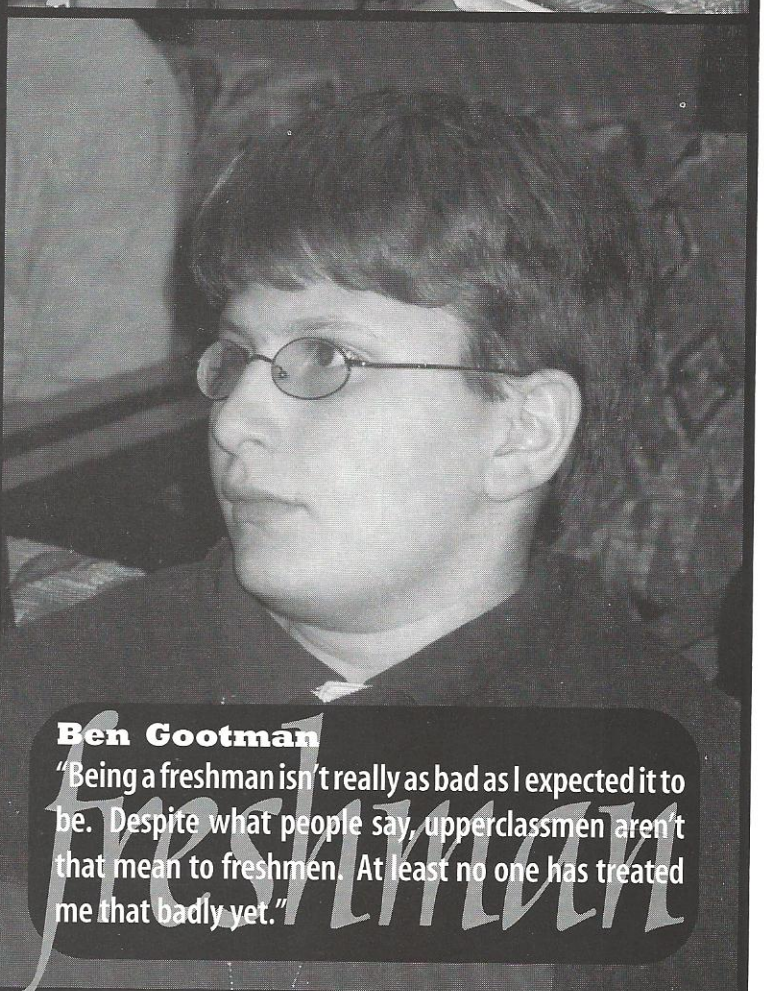

Jexel Frazier

"Being a junior is great, but also a little scary. I know that I am just a few steps from falling into the big world. I really hope I am ready, but I guess I'll know when I get to that point."

Katie James

"Being a sophomore isn't really anything special for me. It is definitely better than being a freshman, but I still have a long ways to go. I haven't even begun to think about college or my future yet."

Ben Gootman

"Being a freshman isn't really as bad as I expected it to be. Despite what people say, upperclassmen aren't that mean to freshmen. At least no one has treated me that badly yet."
