

Eggsta-odinary! Posing with her dish, junior Tene Williams prepared a terrific egg dish which took around an hour to an hour and a half to prepare. Not only did she satisfy the taste buds off her class mates, she made a 100 on her project.

Chowing down! Chomping down on some spanish cuisine, junior Samuel Stevens enjoys a spectacular dish. After he presented the dish he made the night before, he got to relax and sample the other students foods that were in his class.

Mmm..Mmm...Good Showing off his dish, sophomore Mark Roberts is proud of his succulent cacahuete brownies. His fourth period Spanish II class hosted a culture day for all the students where they sampled many different Spanish foods.

Mickey Mouse! Joking around during fourth lunch, freshmen Giovanni Terry and Robert Edwards entertain their friends. "I don't usually eat the food, so I just mess around and talk. Giovanni and I always make everyone around us laugh," said Robert.
