

Practice makes perfect! Mrs. Drawdy's first period Blue Rhythms class practices hard everyday so they can pull off their annual Christmas play. Hard work and determination played vital roles in making the Christmas chorus play a success.

Lead marchers. During 4th period and after school, seniors JJ Stewart, Amanda Carrol, and Justin Singleton can be found practicing in the student parking lot. These three were the marching leaders of the NJROTC. As leaders of the NJROTC, they worked hard to prove their leadership qualities.

