

Paint the rainbow. At a National Honor Society sponsored event, junior Meredith Dresher paints the face of the local elementary school student. Members of NHS were required to complete forty hours of community service, during which they travelled to many parts of the county to help people.

Perfect soldiers. Straightening a fellow cadet's metals, senior Kenneth Maness makes sure his fellow classmates had their uniform in perfect order. NJROTC members often travelled to competitions and always placed very highly. "I'm proud of the accomplishments I've made by being in NJROTC," Kenneth said.
