

May your accomplishments of yesterday be fond memories,
 May your accomplishments of today show the goals you strive for,
 And may your accomplishments of tomorrow make you proud of the way you lived your life.

We thank God for blessing us with having you, loving you and being loved by you.

Congratulations!
To my sister
Shawayna Parker
from your baby sister Shanita Parker. We were always together, but now we're getting ready to part. Good luck! I love you.

I never thought this day would come. I always hoped that you would stay a little girl. You've made us all very proud with your accomplishments and we wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Love you very much,
