

Class Prophecy

Bill Phillipps is now an agent for the F. B. I.

Judy Clark is an art teacher at Winthrop College and is dating the noted Astronomy Professor, Miles Cleckley.

Biddie Fripp and Johnny Snook are now a comedy team on Broadway.

Warren Roberts is a missionary to the Congo and is married to the former Janet Truluck who helps him fight off the wild animals.

Barbara Ziegler is on the faculty at Walterboro High School.

Jeannie Weissenstein and Karen Crews are currently running a record shop in Walterboro, the Disc Jockey Den.

David Turner is now head of the Fire Department in Green Pond and is going steady with Jane Smith.

Tommy Padgett is a tremendous success in the banking business. He recently became president of the Municipal Bank in Jacksonboro. He is married to the former Patsy Kelly.

Larry Ramsey is the bouncer in a Chicago night club.

Nancy Ramsey is more beautiful than ever and is considering a movie offer.

Loretta Rentz has a business of her own. She operates a drive-in beauty salon with three minute service.

Judy Thomas is a model for Belks in New York and was recently a celebrated visitor to Walterboro.

Susan Roberts has moved up North and has "snowed" them under with her "Southern" accent.

Jo Ann Smith is operating her father's farm and her peaches are called the "Smith Special".

Carol Strickland is teaching school in Miami where our former physical education teacher, Mr. Peele, is now coaching.

Keith Summey is playing for the Baltimore Colts and was recently named to the all league team.

Charlie Sweat has taken over the Chevrolet company and is a "wheel" in town.

Linda Tucker is noted for her dancing ability and has joined the famous "Rockettes" in New York.

Judy Walker is a noted pianist and has toured Europe several times.

Sammy Davis is a contractor and recently built a nice home for Mr. Mobley.

Jean Cook is now attendance teacher for the county. She knows how to catch those who skip school.

Celeste Crosby is now secretary for Mr. Hutto.

Angela Crosby and Sally Moore own the "Trading Post", an auction market for horses.

Troy Herndon is presently manager of the Cook Theatre. No wonder all we see are Westerns.

Laurann Litchfield is now secretary for Mr. Mobley and is very efficient.

Donna Pace has moved to New York in search of adventure and better dances.

Linda Mines has written a book entitled "How to be Lazy and Successful".